CHILDREN'S BOOK SERIES

It is never too early to start reading to children. This series was created to help improve literacy by encouraging parents to read to their children from birth.

Here are three ways to help improve literacy one child at a time.

1 Last Night I Dreamt Books

Help your children begin dreaming about all the possibilities that life has to offer. The books in the Last Night I Dreamt Series have colorful pictures and are written in an enjoyable, rhythmic style. Each book follows a boy and a girl as they discover what it's like to be a doctor, teacher or musician. There are two activity pages at the end of each book to encourage further dialog between parent and child. Purchase these durable, hardcover books for your child, or as a gift for any occasion.

2 Last Night I Dreamt Workshop

This program focuses on improving literacy by integrating reading and fun activities. The books are used as the basis for the program. By using simple props and costumes, children get a chance to pretend they are doctors, teachers, or musicians. Songs are incorporated to sustain their interest and provide an exciting program. Each child also receives a free book at the end of the program to motivate them to continue reading at home. For more information, contact Nadine Johnson at 843-276-3738 or email najohndesigns@yahoo.com.

3 Last Night I Dreamt Sponsor

You can become a sponsor by purchasing these books at a discounted price for children in need. The books will be given, on your behalf, to children in your community (homeless shelters, women's shelters, and orphanages). Sponsors will be notified via email when and where their books have been delivered. If you know any nonprofit organizations that are in need of books for children, please email me at najohndesigns@yahoo.com.
